JOHN P. LOVELL OBSEQUIES.

Relatives and Friends Pay Their Last Tribute.

The Honored Citizen, the Kind Friend, and the Successful Business Man at Rest.

Never before in the history of East Weymouth has there been seen such a large gathering of people for the purpose of paying a tribute of respect and participating in a funeral service as was paid to the deceased last Sunday to honor to the lamented John P. Lovell.

At one o'clock, South Shore Company, Dr. K. T. and Orphans Hope Lodge F. A. M., Masonic Lodge, and various clubs and societies, gathered in Oldfield building to join in the services.

THE FACULTY

comprised a list more than twenty teachers and students, who joined in the services.

THE STUDENTS

Few Articles

Add sum to the appearance of the dining room as a solid oak sideboard. Our stock contains many articles of furniture and ornaments of all kinds and sizes.

—Mr. George L. H. H. has opened out the greatest event in its history and none of the plans go astray. The week in October began with a great deal of interest and excitement. The Division will open a grand ball in Chapel Hill Monday the 6th and continue it until Saturday the 9th. The ball will be filled with useful and funny articles together with a large list of prominent guests and a choice entertainment will be given.

—Mrs. Minnie P. Walsh is going to a two weeks' vacation, visiting points of interest along the shore on her bicycle.

—Miss Lillian O'Donnell of Springfield, is the guest of the Misses Nellie and Alice.

—The funeral of the late Robert F. Lenagan took place last Saturday morning from the church of the Sacred Heart, and was very largely attended. Father Hollister and many officials of the Weymouth Chamber of Commerce were present.

—Mr. John Kelley has returned from a visit to Ireland in August.

—Miss Alice Morris of Andover who has been visiting friends in town has now returned to her home.

—Dunduff cured by using Connell's hair tonic.

—Robert Murray has accepted a position at the First Hotel, Somerville.

—Byron W. H. is to occupy the Halls house on Front street.

—James Kennedy and daughter of Rockwood were in town over Sunday visiting friends.

—Miss John N. Nash is recovering from an operation of the lungs.

—Rev. and Mrs. Edward Morris are home from a trip to the West, N. H., where they went to attend the University convention.

—Miss May Bradford is visiting friends in the Adelphi eight mile bicycle race as they went through the town last Saturday.

—The placid Labor Day at the Fair Grounds will be very interesting, as aside from the fact that there will be good shows, there will also be a 135 yd. dash, (professional open to the public), with a dash for the winners.

—Miss T. Joy has been confined to the house for a few days by illness, but is much better.

—Rev. R. R. Kendall will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church next Sunday.

—Wednesday morning while left for a moment on Pratt avenue the horse of Mrs. Davis J. Pratt attached to a milk wagon, and was unable to move. The driver and his son, the father of Mrs. Davis & son, were making a partial wreck of the wagon and demolishing several milk jars; after running a short distance the horse stopped without further damage.

—The Electric Washing Fluid is continuing to be a great success.

—Matthews Race meet at South Weymouth Park tomorrow under the management of the Weymouth Driving Club.

—Mr. T. H. H. has had a large experience in insurance and will be able to give my former patrons the same satisfactory treatment that it has been my endeavor to accord them.

—All endorsements and changes in existing policies, will be cared for by him, and I bespeak for him your future patronage.

Z. L. BICKNELL.

—EST. Weymouth, April 28, 1897.

Owing to poor health, I have decided to give up my Insurance business, and have therefore, this day, transferred to H. A. Turrell, the agency of the Royal Insurance Co. of England, and the Pennsylvania Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Turrell has had a large experience in insurance and will be able to give my former patrons the same satisfactory treatment that it has been my endeavor to accord them.

All endorsements and changes in existing policies, will be cared for by him, and I bespeak for him your future patronage.

Z. L. BICKNELL.

—EST. Weymouth, April 27, 1897.

The above companies having been transferred to my agency, I shall endeavor to merit your patronage with promptness and business-like dealings.

Hoping you will favor me with the same:

Yours respectfully,
